MEDIA RELEASE
Singapore, 13 November 2026 | FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Singapore-Registered Vessel STRATEGIC ALLIANCE Came Into Contact With Bridge In New Jersey, No Injuries Reported

The Singapore-registered bulk carrier STRATEGIC ALLIANCE came into contact with the Tacony-Palmyra Bridge in New Jersey, United States on 13 November 2026 at about 2.15am (Singapore Time).

2. There were no reported injuries to civilians and crew members on board the vessel. The vessel did not sustain major damage, and no marine pollution has been reported.

3. The vessel is currently safely moored at Kinder Morgan terminal in Pennsylvania.

4. The Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore (MPA) is in contact with the vessel's management company and the relevant US authorities to establish the circumstances of the incident, and will investigate the incident.

5. We separately understand that the bridge has since been reopened to vehicular traffic.

<End of Release>

About the Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore (MPA)

MPA was established in 1996 with the mission to develop Singapore as a global hub port and international maritime centre, and to advance and safeguard Singapore's strategic maritime interests. MPA takes on multiple roles as Singapore's maritime and port regulator and planner, international maritime centre champion, national maritime representative, and champion of maritime digitalisation and decarbonisation efforts. MPA partners industry, research community and other agencies to enhance safety, security and environmental protection, facilitate maritime and port operations and growth, expand multi-domain capabilities, and support the cluster of maritime services and manpower development.

For more information, please visit www.mpa.gov.sg.

For media enquiries, please contact:

Justin Li
Communications and Community, Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore
Email: media_enquiries@mpa.gov.sg