Singapore, 12 June 2026 | For Immediate Release

Supply Boat Sunk Off Pasir Panjang Terminal

A supply boat sunk off Pasir Panjang Terminal on 12 June 2026 at about 9.30 AM after colliding with a landing craft. The Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore (MPA), Police Coast Guard (PCG), and SCDF Marine Division, immediately activated their crafts to the incident site and commenced search and rescue operations.

2. The landing craft is stable with no reported injury to crew on board.
3. PCG has recovered three bodies from the waters, believed to be deceased crew members of the sunken supply boat. Search and rescue operations, including diving operations, are ongoing to determine if there are other crew members from the supply boat missing.
4. Port operations have not been affected. Navigational broadcasts have been issued advising vessels to keep clear of the incident area.
5. Investigations into the incident are ongoing.
