Singapore, 11 November 2025 | For Immediate Release

Collision between ferry and tanker off Southern Islands

The Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore (MPA) is aware of a collision between the Singapore-registered passenger ferry, Horizon 9 and the Marshall Islands-registered tanker, La Digue on 10 November 2025. The ferry was en route to HarbourFront Centre when the vessels collided off the Southern Islands. The incident occurred on 10 November at about 5pm.

2. A MPA patrol craft was immediately deployed to escort and guide the ferry back to HarbourFront Centre.
3. All 165 passengers and 7 crew on board Horizon 9 were safely disembarked at the Regional Ferry Terminal at HarbourFront Centre.
4. The ferry sustained some damage to its bow above the waterline but remained fully operational while en route back to Harbourfront Centre. The tanker, La Digue, did not report any damage. There were no reports of injury to passengers and crew, or pollution arising from the incident. There was also no impact to navigational traffic or port operations.
5. MPA is investigating the incident.
