No. 15 of 2002

20 Apr 2002

Pleasure Craft Community

IMMIGRATION CLEARANCE FOR FOREIGN YACHTS AND PLEASURE CRAFT

1 With effect from 1 May 2002, all arriving/departing foreign yachts and pleasure craft are required to first anchor at either Western Quarantine & Immigration Anchorage or Changi General Purposes Anchorage (as shown in Appendix 1) for immigration clearance on board.

2 The Immigration Officer will conduct face-to-face check on all persons on board and their passports. A Landing Pass will be issued, if required.

3 Foreign yachts and pleasure craft requiring immigration clearance are to display the appropriate flag and signal by day and two green lights in a vertical line by night (as shown in Appendix 2). The immigration office may also be contacted on VHF Channel 14.

4 For clarification and enquiries on immigration matters, please contact the Seamen's Section at Tel: 6391 6477, Fax: 6293 6753/8.

1. This Circular applies from 1 May 2012, at which time the following provisions shall apply to the arrival of motor yachts and pleasure craft at the Immigration and Checkpoints Authority (ICA) ports of entry in Singapore. The provisions apply to all motor yachts and pleasure craft, including those with a crew of up to 10 persons and a maximum gross tonnage of 100 tons.

2. The Immigration Officer will conduct a visual inspection of the motor yacht and its crew. The Immigration Officer will also inspect the motor yacht's logbook and other documents. A Landing Pass will be issued to the crew.

3. Motor yachts and pleasure craft which require an approval to enter Singapore waters shall display the appropriate flag and lighting as shown in the two charts below. The lighting shown in the charts is to be used in conjunction with the appropriate flag. For more information, refer to the ICA Circular 14.

4. For clarification and enquiries, refer to the contact details below. For more information, refer to the ICA Circular 14.
