Time : 10.00 am – 9.00pm daily (except 19 April when exhibition opens from 5pm to the public)
Venue : Marina Bay Sands Events Plaza
Organiser : MPA, SMF, SSA and ASMI

Maritime Singapore: From Trading Post to Global Hub exhibition traces the evolution of our maritime heritage, from a colonial trading post to a hub in the globalised 21st century economy; how the past and present shape our future of maritime Singapore. The exhibition focuses on the historical, social and economic significance of Singapore as a global hub port and an international maritime centre.

The themes – heritage, technology and people – are woven into the narrative throughout the whole exhibition. Zone 1, “Introducing Maritime Singapore”, brings visitors to the awareness on how our lives are impacted by shipping. Zone 2, “Discovering Maritime Singapore”, depicts chronologically our maritime history and heritage over 200 years. Zone 3, “Exploring Maritime Singapore”, examines Singapore’s physical and social landscape changes brought on by changes in shipping technology. Zone 4, “Being Maritime Singapore”, focus on Singapore’s global connectivity to the world and its importance as an international maritime centre. The exhibition concludes with Zone 5, “Future Maritime Possibilities” that seeks visitors’ reflection on past, present and future of maritime Singapore. Admission is free.

Date : 22 – 24 April 2015
Time : 9.00 am
Venue : Sands Expo & Convention Centre, Marina Bay Sands® Singapore
Organiser : MPA

Oil and Chemical spill risk management needs the attention of a wide cross section of industry. As Singapore continues to entrench its position as a transshipment hub in this sector, and regional economies jostle for a larger share of the pie, the Straits of Malacca will see an unprecedented re-profiling of marine pollution risk. The probability of an incident will only increase, and there is a need for concerted effort to be a step ahead in the safety risk management arena. ICOPCE 2015 brings together all stakeholders to develop next generation strategies to help industry manage evolving risks. The opening ceremony will be held on 22 April 2015 at 9.00am.
