LNG Bunkering Course - Management and Operational Level

Participants
Staff from Operations & Marine Services division

Training Service Provider
Singapore Polytechnic

Overview
The fundamental knowledge for a typical LNG bunkering operations, including the related corporate governance and management systems,
Familiarity with the operation, calibration and maintenance of equipment and instrumentation, control and monitoring of bunkering operations,
Non-standard and emergency operations and related safety aspects.

Key Takeaways
To assist persons in management and operational duties for LNG Bunkering using trucks, Bunker Barge, Cassette bunkering or from terminals to the ships, for ships which require LNG as fuel.

To deliver training as per MPA and Singapore Standards Council Technical Reference TR56-2017 in the areas of LNG Bunkering for management and operational staff.